Art Marks Milestone

Marking its quarter-century anniversary in Los Angeles, Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom sponsored a three-year art exhibition featuring 25 emerging local talents. On Thursday the firm opened the third and final installment at its downtown office. Above, Skadden partner Michael Lawson, left, and artist John Sisley with Sisley's painting, "The Locked Room." At left, Curator Thomas Solomon and artist Lindsay Brant with her work, "Renascent Brave."
