

Industrial and service corporations, as well as financial and governmental entities, and high-technology companies rely on Skadden's legal advice to compete most effectively in a global business environment. As a leader in mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions, we have represented many of the world's largest companies, including approximately 50 percent of the Fortune 250, in their most high-profile deals.

The broad diversification of the firm's work in more than 50 practice areas enables us to provide our clients with coordinated legal advice in multiple areas of the law, including those involving litigation and regulatory issues. Among the world's top law firms, we have one of the largest, most experienced teams of transactional lawyers, whose capabilities enable us to handle the numerous issues that can arise in a single corporate transaction.

Skadden provides advice in a full spectrum of corporate transactional and other matters, including mergers and acquisitions, capital markets, corporate governance, restructurings and private equity investments. We also counsel clients regarding a variety of other matters such as securities law compliance, directorial duties, tax-favored investments and market listing/FINRA advice.

The depth and scope of Skadden's practice has been reflected over the years in numerous surveys of the legal industry. The firm routinely tops league tables in a variety of corporate practice areas, including M&A, corporate restructuring, corporate finance and project finance. We were named Named Law Firm of the Year for Corporate Law by U.S. News — Best Lawyers in its 2019 Best Law Firms survey. Skadden has been named the top corporate law firm in the United States in Corporate Board Member magazine's annual survey of "America's Best Corporate Law Firms" more than any other law firm. The survey asked directors of publicly traded companies to select "a firm they would most likely turn to for corporate legal matters."

Additionally, Skadden has more matters recognized for innovation than any other law firm in the history of the Financial Times' U.S./North America "Innovative Lawyers" report.
