

Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom (UK) LLP complaints handling policy

We want to give you the best possible service. However, if at any point you become unhappy or concerned about the service we have provided then you should inform us immediately, so that we can do our best to resolve the problem.

In the first instance it may be helpful to contact an individual who is working on your case and we will do our best to resolve any issues at this stage.

If you would like to make a formal complaint, then please read our full complaints procedure here. Making a complaint will not affect how we handle your case.

The Solicitors Regulation Authority can help you if you are concerned about our behaviour. This could be for things like dishonesty, taking or losing your money or treating you unfairly because of your age, a disability or other characteristic. You can raise your concerns with the Solicitors Regulation Authority.

If we cannot resolve your complaint, the Legal Ombudsman can help you. The Legal Ombudsman will look at your complaint independently and it will not affect how we handle your case.

Before accepting a complaint for investigation, the Legal Ombudsman will check that you have tried to resolve your complaint with us first. If you have, then you must normally take your complaint to the Legal Ombudsman within:

- six months of receiving a final response from us to your complaint;
- one year from the date of the act or omission about which you are complaining; occurring; or
- one year from when you should reasonably have known there was a cause for complaint.

If you would like more information about the Legal Ombudsman, please contact them.
