Energy and Infrastructure

We represent developers, sponsors, financial institutions, industrial companies and utilities in a broad range of energy and infrastructure projects, including power, oil and gas, ports, toll roads and high-speed rail. In this capacity, we frequently advise on the development and financing, as well as the acquisition and divestiture, of such projects.

International Litigation and Arbitration

We have considerable experience handling international arbitration, treaty claims and litigation in the region. Members of the practice have handled cases under the auspices of HKIAC, CIETAC, SIAC, ICC and LCIA, as well as ICSID and UNCITRAL claims. The team also handles regulatory and cross-border investigations and includes attorneys with significant experience in Foreign Corrupt Practices Act matters in Asia. Additionally, the Asia litigation team has U.S.-qualified lawyers who handle U.S.-based cases, including involving securities class actions.

Investment Management

Our investment management attorneys represent leading investors, sponsors and strategic parties in Asia in connection with the formation, capitalization and operation of investment funds and fund managers, including venture funds and venture portfolio transactions.

International Competition

The international competition practice frequently represent clients on a full range of international competition law issues raised in multinational M&A and other transactions. We also advise clients across multiple jurisdictions with anticompetitive conduct issues involving cartels. Our clients rely on our antitrust/competition attorneys' deep background and worldwide reach to draw on the resources of Skadden's global platform, providing focused, integrated services for global mergers and acquisitions, government enforcement and white collar criminal investigations and litigation, trial-level and appellate litigation, and international arbitration.

*Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom (Singapore) LLP is licensed in Singapore as a registered foreign law firm to advise clients on certain aspects of their international transactions and operations. We are not authorized to practice Singapore law. All matters relating to advice as to Singapore law will be dealt with by a separate local Singapore law firm.
