Paige Braddy focuses on tax controversy and litigation. She represents large financial institutions, multinational corporations, estates and individuals at various stages of federal income tax controversies, including audits, administrative appeals and judicial proceedings. Ms. Braddy's practice covers a diverse range of tax issues, including international tax, taxation of financial products, methods of accounting, estate and gift taxes, proposed exempt status revocations, voluntary disclosures and administrative procedure. In recognition of her work, she was named as one of Best Lawyers' 2024 Ones To Watch in America.
