

Garrett L. Brodeur

Skadden

Associate, Washington, D.C.

Tax; Tax Controversy and Litigation

T: 202.371.7377
garrett.brodeur@skadden.com

Education

LL.M., Georgetown University
Law Center, 2019 (with Distinction;
Graduate Tax Scholar)

J.D., Duke Law School, 2017
(cum laude; Editor-in-Chief, *Duke
Journal of Comparative and International Law*)

B.A., University of Houston, 2013
(summa cum laude)

Bar Admissions

New York

District of Columbia

U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit

U.S. Tax Court

Experience

Law Clerk, Hon. Emin Toro, U.S. Tax
Court (2019-21)

Law Clerk, Hon. David T. Thuma, U.S.
Bankruptcy Court for the District of
New Mexico (2017-18)

Garrett Brodeur advises clients on a variety of complex civil tax controversy and litigation issues. With experience representing large U.S. and multinational companies and high-net-worth individuals, Mr. Brodeur routinely assists clients in navigating the audit, administrative proceeding and litigation phases of matters. In recognition of his work in Tax Law, Mr. Brodeur was named one of Best Lawyers' 2024 Ones To Watch in America.

He is an active member of the tax sections of the American Bar Association (ABA) and the New York State Bar Association, and routinely speaks as a panelist at ABA conferences and other organizations' events on issues relating to tax controversy. Mr. Brodeur serves in a variety of capacities in the ABA's Tax Section, including as vice chair of its Tax Practice & Technology Committee and a member of its Diversity in the Profession Committee, in addition to serving as a mentor for members of the Loretta Collins Argrett Diversity Fellowship program. As part of his practice, Mr. Brodeur has worked on several pro bono matters, including drafting amici briefs for the U.S. Supreme Court and serving as a volunteer attorney for unrepresented taxpayers before the U.S. Tax Court.