Katja Butler is co-head of Skadden's U.K. corporate practice. She advises clients on all aspects of their investments, from initial acquisition to exit, and counsels on the execution of exit planning and co-investment terms.

Ms. Butler, who is a key partner in Skadden's London and European financial sponsor practice, has been repeatedly ranked in Chambers Global and Chambers UK for Private Equity: Buyouts, in addition to being named one of Private Equity News' Twenty Most Influential Private Equity Lawyers (including in 2026).

Ms. Butler is regularly rated as a Leading Individual by The Legal 500 UK, in which she has been described by clients as "fantastic," "always available" and "excellent to work with," and is one of a handful of attorneys recognised as Notable Practitioners for Private Equity and M&A in the IFLR1000 rankings. She also has been previously named Best in Private Equity by the Women in Business Law European Awards, one of Law360's Rising Stars in private equity and one of Legal Week's 40 Under 40: The Rising Stars In Private Equity. She also has been noted as a Female Future Leader by the Financial Times in its HERoes: Champions of Women in Business List.
