Steve Daniels is head of Skadden's Wilmington M&A/Corporate Group. He has a broad-ranging corporate practice focused primarily on mergers and acquisitions, private equity transactions, distressed transactions, securities law matters and corporate governance. Mr. Daniels has deep experience representing publicly traded acquirors and target companies, and also has extensive experience representing private company buyers and sellers — including private equity funds and their portfolio companies — in a variety of transactional situations. He frequently represents acquirors and sellers in distressed situations, and has extensive experience advising clients on the corporate aspects of bankruptcy proceedings and workouts, recapitalization transactions and “rescue” financings. Mr. Daniels also advises on issues of Delaware law, including fiduciary duty and corporate governance matters.

Mr. Daniels has represented numerous public and private companies, as well as investment funds, in connection with a variety of negotiated and hostile transactions, including mergers, purchases and sales of securities, assets and business units; tender offers; leveraged buyouts; recapitalizations; going-private transactions; special committee representations; and activist defense and preparedness engagements.

Past representations include:

- True Value in corporate aspects of its Chapter 11 proceedings and the sale of substantially all of its assets via a Section 363 transaction to Do it Best Corp.
- Del Monte Pacific Limited in connection with the balance sheet restructuring of its affiliates Del Monte Foods Inc. and Del Monte Foods Holdings Limited
