Charles de Reals joined Skadden's Paris office in November 2015.

Mr. de Reals' practice focuses on complex M&A transactions in France involving both listed and private companies, as well as securities law and general corporate matters.

He also has significant experience advising issuers in relation to serious corporate governance issues.

In addition, Mr. de Reals regularly represents French and foreign companies with respect to strategic disputes relating to corporate and securities laws.

Prior to joining Skadden, Mr. de Reals practiced law at a leading French law firm and at a major international firm.

Selected representations include:

- Eurazeo SE in connection with the strategic partnership with Rhone Capital and the investment made by JCDecaux Holding in Eurazeo;
