Camilla Dutton advises private equity institutions and other forms of financial sponsor and management teams on a wide range of corporate matters, including domestic, cross-border and global mergers and acquisitions; group restructurings; and general corporate governance matters.

Since joining Skadden she has advised:

- RMG Acquisition Corporation II in its $8 billion business combination with ReNew Power, India's leading renewable power company. This is the first-ever de-SPAC transaction involving an Indian company; and
- Hg in connection with its acquisition of Gen II Fund Services LLC as part of a consortium along with General Atlantic and IHS Markit.

Prior to joining Skadden, Ms. Dutton has advised:

- a consortium led by Blackstone and CVC Capital Partners on its £2.96 billion offer for Paysafe Group plc, a leading global provider of end-to-end payment solutions;
- BDT Capital Partners on its acquisition of Fox International from Mayfair;
- Bain Capital on its acquisitions of Italmatch Chemicals and BWA Water Additives;
- Blackstone on its acquisition of the Acetow business from Solvay;
- KKR on its acquisitions of Trainline and Travelopia;
- Platinum Equity in connection with its acquisition of Pattonair;
- KSL Capital Partners on its:
  - disposal of the Malmaison and Hotel du Vin hotel group; and
  - acquisition of the VUR Village Hotels & Leisure Group; and
- confidential startup companies on seed and early series fundraising and the issuance of convertible notes.
