Oren Epstein's practice covers a broad range of transactional and counseling matters relating to intellectual property, technology and social media. Mr. Epstein frequently structures, drafts and negotiates licensing arrangements (including trademark, software and information technology, content, patent, endorsement and rights of publicity, pharmaceutical, know-how and other licensing agreements), sourcing agreements, patent sales, trademark co-existence agreements and general commercial relationships (including supply and distribution agreements, services agreements and consignment agreements).

In addition, he has extensive experience with the intellectual property and technology, and related aspects of general corporate transactions, such as initial public offerings, mergers, acquisitions, spin-offs and divestitures, financings, joint ventures and securities offerings. Mr. Epstein also has a breadth and depth of experience in negotiating and advising on vendor and other commercial agreements that are critical to the successful operation of a business, such as outsourcing, cafeteria and food and beverage service, and event hosting and sponsorship arrangements.

In addition to his transactional practice, Mr. Epstein advises clients regarding obtaining, protecting and enforcing trademarks, copyrights and associated content in the United States and worldwide.

Repeatedly recognized as a Rising Star in the Trade Marks section of Euromoney Legal Media Group's Rising Stars and named as a recipient of a Lawyers Alliance Cornerstone Award recognizing his outstanding work on pro bono matters, Mr. Epstein counsels a broad array of clients in various industries, with a focus on the retail, technology and finance industries. His experience includes representing:

- The Walt Disney Company in its $4 billion acquisition of Lucasfilm Ltd.
- Coty Inc. in its long-term strategic relationships with Kylie Jenner and Kim Kardashian to expand their beauty businesses
