

Blaine (Fin) Fogg

Skadden

Of Counsel, New York

Mergers and Acquisitions

Education

J.D., Harvard Law School, 1965
(cum laude)

A.B., Williams College, 1962
(cum laude)

Blaine (Fin) Fogg concentrated his practice on mergers, acquisitions and other corporate transactions.

Since joining the firm in 1966, Mr. Fogg represented clients in a wide variety of matters, including negotiated mergers, acquisitions and leveraged buyouts; unsolicited tender offers; proxy contests; corporate restructurings and reorganizations; and public and private securities offerings. He had experience in corporate governance, having served on public company and not-for-profit boards. He also advised on cross-border transactions involving European companies and spent more than two years in Skadden's Paris office.

Mr. Fogg repeatedly was selected for inclusion in The Best Lawyers in America and Chambers USA in the areas of Corporate and M&A Law.

Mr. Fogg co-authored a major treatise on the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act, authored numerous articles and spoke at many forums on mergers and acquisitions.