Andrew Foster is head of the firm's international competition practice for Asia Pacific. He advises on competition regimes around the globe, focusing on China, the EU and the U.S. Mr. Foster has practiced in Skadden's New York, Brussels, Beijing and Hong Kong offices, representing multinational firms in international merger control, private litigation, and U.S. and EU enforcement matters, including cartel and monopolization/dominance investigations. Repeatedly selected for inclusion as a leading competition lawyer in Chambers Global, Chambers Asia Pacific, IFLR1000 Asia Pacific and Who's Who Legal: Competition, Mr. Foster also has been published widely on international competition issues, including contributing chapters to Competition Law in Asia-Pacific: A Practical Guide and EU and US Antitrust Arbitration: A Handbook for Practitioners.

Notable recent merger control work includes:

- Hanwha Group (South Korea) with respect to the unconditional EU approval (and other regulatory filings) of its US$1.45 billion acquisition of Daewoo Shipbuilding & Marine Engineering Co. (South Korea)
- Axiata Group (Malaysia) in Celcom Axiata's US$12 billion merger with Digi, a subsidiary of Telenor Asia. This is the largest-ever telecoms transaction in Malaysia
- Grab Holdings Inc. (Singapore) in its US$40 billion merger with Altimeter Growth Corp. As a result of the merger, Grab will become a publicly traded company in the largest-ever de-SPAC transaction globally and the largest-ever U.S. equity offering by a Southeast Asian company, with PIPE proceeds of US$4.04 billion
- SK Hynix Inc. (South Korea) in its US$9 billion acquisition of the NAND memory and storage business of Intel Corporation
- WABCO Holdings Inc. (Belgium) in its US$7 billion merger with ZF Friedrichshafen AG. The transaction was named Merger Control Matter of the Year — Asia-Pacific, Middle East and Africa at the 2021 GCR Awards;
- Xilinx, Inc. (U.S.) in its US$35 billion acquisition by Advanced Micro Devices, Inc.
- Willis Towers Watson (U.K.) in its US$30 billion acquisition by Aon plc.
- Cisco Systems, Inc. (U.S.) with certain antitrust and regulatory aspects of its US$2.6 billion acquisition of Acacia Communications, Inc.
- NXP Semiconductors N.V. (the Netherlands) in its US$1.76 billion acquisition of Marvell Technology Group Ltd.'s wireless connectivity portfolio
- Red Hat, Inc. (U.S.) in its US$34 billion acquisition by International Business Machines Corporation
- Hewlett Packard Enterprise (U.S.) in its US$1.3 billion acquisition of Cray Inc.
- Rockwell Collins, Inc. (U.S.) in its US$30 billion acquisition by United Technologies Corp.
- Cavium Inc. (U.S.) in its US$6 billion acquisition by Marvell Technology Group Ltd.
- E. I. du Pont de Nemours and Company (U.S.) in its combination with The Dow Chemical Company in an all-stock merger of equals with an announced value of US$130 billion
- EMC Corporation (U.S.) in its US$67 billion acquisition by Denali Holding Inc., the parent company of Dell Inc.
- NXP Semiconductors N.V. (the Netherlands) in its proposed but terminated US$47 billion acquisition by Qualcomm Incorporated
