Dr. Johannes Frey advises clients on all aspects of tax controversy and international tax planning. He represents many of the largest multinational companies through the full range of tax controversy proceedings, including audits, administrative appeals, multilateral controls and judicial proceedings.

Dr. Frey regularly handles complex and contentious audits and disputes for multinational clients that involve intellectual property, joint ventures, transfer pricing and permanent establishment matters. He advises corporate clients across many industries, with a particular focus on technology, health care and consumer products.

He has co-authored numerous articles on a wide range of international topics that have been published in leading tax journals, including the Tax Management International Journal, Tax Notes and Tax Notes International. He also served as adjunct professor for international taxation at the University of Lausanne.

Dr. Frey has been repeatedly selected for inclusion as a leading lawyer in Chambers Global, Chambers Europe, International Tax Review World Tax, The Legal 500, Lexology Index (formerly Who's Who Legal), Expert Guides' Guide to the World's Leading Tax Advisers, Handelsblatt/Best Lawyers and JUVE Wirtschaftskanzleien. He also was recently named Tax Lawyer of the Year at The Legal 500 Germany Awards, as well as one of the top 25 corporate tax lawyers in Germany by WirtschaftsWoche (a leading German journal), a Thought Leader and Highly Recommended Lawyer for Corporate Tax in Germany by Lexology Index and one of Lawdragon's 500 Leading Global Tax Lawyers.

Tax Controversy

Dr. Frey's tax controversy practice focuses heavily on representing corporate taxpayers in pre-audit, audit, administrative appeal and litigation proceedings. He frequently resolves complex tax disputes and addresses cross-border discovery and evidentiary privilege issues.

Select representations include:

- global software and technology companies on disputes concerning licenses and transfers of intangibles
- global consumer products companies on disputes with various tax authorities concerning intangibles
- pharmaceutical companies on transfer pricing matters and disputes over the tax consequences of cross-border licensing and cost sharing
- multinational companies on multilateral controls issues and simultaneous/joint audits within the EU
- multinational companies on disputes regarding anti-hybrid rules
- cruise companies on international VAT disputes
- insurance companies on questions relating to permanent establishments
- various exit tax and partnership disputes
