

Associate, New York

International Litigation and Arbitration

T: 212.735.2467
kristina.fridman@skadden.com

Education

J.D., Columbia Law School, 2017

B.A., American University, 2011

Bar Admissions

New York

Languages

Russian (native)

Spanish (basic)

Associations

Member, New York City Bar
Arbitration Committee

Kristina Fridman represents domestic and international clients in a variety of international arbitration and litigation matters spanning many industries, including pharmaceuticals, oil and gas, and construction, among others.

Representative matters include:

- an investor in two parallel proceedings regarding a refinery project;
- an investor in an ICSID arbitration against a South American state related to a parking project;
- an investor in an UNCITRAL arbitration related to a canceled oil concession;
- an aviation company in an LCIA arbitration against its former client;
- a multinational pharmaceutical company in an ICC arbitration regarding a post-acquisition earn-out dispute;
- the owners of a pharmaceutical company in a JAMS arbitration brought by the former CEO and minority shareholder;
- a real estate company in a AAA arbitration against a former partner;
- a multinational distribution company in a proceeding to quash a Section 1782 discovery request; and
- two UNCITRAL investor-state arbitrations related to infrastructure projects in Eastern Europe, both concluded successfully for the investor.

Publications

“A Bridge Too Far? The European Commission Takes its Campaign Against Intra-EU Investment Arbitration to US Courts,” The Arbitration Review of the Americas 2020

“Substantive Protections: Expropriation,” The Guide to Investment Treaty Protection and Enforcement – First Edition

“Chapter 8: Use of Section 1782 in Aid of Arbitration,” Obtaining Evidence for Use in International Tribunals Under 28 U.S.C. Section 1782