

Matthew P. Hendrickson

Skadden

Partner, New York

Antitrust/Competition

T: 212.735.2066
F: 917.777.2066
matthew.hendrickson@skadden.com

Education

J.D., University of Minnesota Law School, 1992 (magna cum laude)

B.A., Williams College, 1988
(cum laude)

Bar Admissions

New York

Selected Publications

"Revised HSR Thresholds Announced," Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP, February 18, 2019

"Federal Trade Commission Loses Challenge to Steris-Synergy Deal," Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP, September 25, 2015 (named Best Business Mergers Article at the 2016 Antitrust Writing Awards)

"Thoughts on Google's FTC Settlement," Law360, January 4, 2013 (named Best Business Dominance Article at the 2014 Antitrust Writing Awards)

"More Aggressive Monetary Remedies In FTC Antitrust Cases," Law360, August 6, 2012

Matt Hendrickson represents parties involved in mergers and acquisitions in proceedings before the Federal Trade Commission and the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice.

He also handles antitrust litigation and provides counseling on U.S. competition laws and the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act.

Mr. Hendrickson has been part of the teams representing a number of clients in major transactions, including Rhodia, Express Scripts, Taro Pharmaceuticals, Southwest Airlines, Mylan Inc., Nokia, Reichhold, JAB Holdings, Stanley Black & Decker, ABB, DuPont and Sprint Corporation.

His litigation experience includes defending De Beers in connection with U.S. class action lawsuits relating to gem diamonds, defending De Beers in antitrust class action litigation brought in British Columbia, defending Shufflemaster against allegations of monopolization of casino table games and defending Solvay and Laboratoires Fournier in connection with multiple suits alleging monopolization of a pharmaceutical product.