Bar Admissions

New York

Evan Hill focuses his practice on complex corporate and financial restructurings, advising clients in all aspects of out-of-court restructurings, liability management transactions, Chapter 11 reorganizations, and distressed mergers and acquisitions. Mr. Hill's restructuring experience spans a wide variety of industries, including health care, energy, financial services, shipping and media. He also has experience representing corporate clients, private equity sponsors and investment banks in connection with public and private mergers and acquisitions, recapitalizations and equity investments, including PIPE investments in de-SPAC transactions.

Mr. Hill is an active member of several industry and charitable organizations. For example, he has served as a member of the board of directors and in other leadership positions of the New York City Chapter of the Turnaround Management Association (TMA). He also is a member of the American Bankruptcy Institute (ABI) and the New York City Bar Association, where he serves on the Bankruptcy and Corporate Reorganization Committee and formerly served as secretary and treasurer of the Legal History Committee. Mr. Hill also is a member of the leadership of Young Catholic Renewal, a group of professionals in the corporate restructuring industry aged 40 and under who are committed to providing charitable assistance to those in need.

Additionally, Mr. Hill actively represents a variety of pro bono clients, with a focus on nonprofit organizations. He has advised dozens of nonprofit organizations in all aspects of corporate governance, commercial transactions and mergers and acquisitions. Mr. Hill also is a member of the Law Firm Anti-Racism Alliance Banking Working Group, which is tasked with examining the practices of banking and financial institutions to determine how best to address elements of the industry that perpetuate racial inequity.

In recognition of his work, Mr. Hill was named one of Turnarounds & Workouts' Outstanding Young Restructuring Lawyers in 2024. He also has been honored by Chambers USA, by Best Lawyers in America and as one of Lawdragon's 500 Leading Global Bankruptcy & Restructuring Lawyers, in addition to being named one of the ABI's 40 Under 40 Emerging Leaders in Insolvency Practice and the winner of the TMA's Emerging Leader Award. In addition, he was selected as the recipient of the Lawyers Alliance for New York's Cornerstone Award in recognition of his distinguished pro bono service to nonprofit organizations. Mr. Hill also frequently writes and speaks on issues pertaining to financial distress and restructuring.
