Michael Hong has extensive experience advising on high-yield debt offerings and complex private equity financing transactions, as well as liability management and restructuring transactions, such as tender offers, exchange offers and consent solicitations. Mr. Hong regularly represents financial institutions and corporate clients in a broad range of U.S., Canadian and other international transactions, including initial public offerings and private equity transactions and financings under the U.S.-Canada Multijurisdictional Disclosure System.

Mr. Hong has led more than 50 high-yield debt offerings since 2021 — with aggregate proceeds of over $40 billion — including for Venture Global LNG in 2023, which was the second-largest inaugural high-yield notes offering in history. Mr. Hong also has substantial experience in the energy sector, leading numerous debt and equity transactions for energy companies, including NextEra Energy, Devon Energy, D.E. Shaw Renewable Investments, Ohmium International, Hunt Oil, First Solar, Cheniere Energy, TerraForm, AES Corporation, Rentech Energy Partners, FTC Solar, Forestar Group and Shelf Drilling.

In recognition of his work, Mr. Hong was honored as a 2025 Capital Markets MVP by Law360. He has also been ranked by Chambers USA and named one of Lawdragon's 500 Leading Dealmakers in America. He serves as a member of Skadden's Opinion and Hiring committees.
