

Collin P. Janus

Skadden

Counsel, Washington, D.C.

Financial Institutions Regulation and Enforcement

T: 202.371.7351
F: 202.661.2351
collin.janus@skadden.com

Education

J.D., University of Wisconsin Law School, 2008

MPACC, The University of Texas, 2003

B.B.A., University of Wisconsin, Madison, 2002

Bar Admissions

Illinois

District of Columbia

Collin Janus advises financial institutions and other clients on regulatory and transactional matters. Mr. Janus advises bank holding companies, foreign banking organizations, national and state banks, thrifts, other financial institutions and investors in connection with acquisitions, investments, activities, compliance and other regulatory and transactional matters. He represents clients before the Federal Reserve, OCC, FDIC, and other federal and state banking agencies.

Prior to attending law school, Mr. Janus was a certified public accountant and auditor at a large international accounting firm.