

Sabrina S. Mannai

Skadden

Associate, London

Government Enforcement and White Collar Crime

T: 44.20.7519.7225
sabrina.mannai@skadden.com

Education

LL.M., Tulane University Law School, 2007

Certificate, Queen Mary, University of London, 2005

LL.B., University of Paris I - Panthéon-Sorbonne, 2006

M.Sc., London School of Economics and Political Science, 2010

Bar Admissions

New York

Louisiana

Paris

Sabrina Mannai's experience includes representing clients in U.S. and multinational regulatory investigations, including those brought by the U.S. Department of Justice, the U.S. Commodity and Futures Commission (CFTC), the U.S. Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC), the U.S. Federal Reserve, the U.K. Serious Fraud Office, the U.K. Financial Conduct Authority, the European Commission and various other international regulators. She also advises on anti-bribery and anti-corruption matters and compliance with the U.K. Bribery Act, the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act and French anti-corruption laws.

Prior to joining Skadden in July 2015, Ms. Mannai practised as an associate at another leading international law firm.

Examples of her representations prior to joining Skadden include:

- representing a bank in connection with multijurisdictional investigations into interest rates and interest rates derivatives involving various authorities, including the U.S. Department of Justice, the U.S. CFTC, the U.K. Financial Services Authority, the European Commission, the French AMF and ACPR, the HKMA and MAS;
- advising a bank in relation to an investigation into spot foreign exchange trading;
- conducting internal investigations and anti-bribery due diligence in Africa;
- advising private equity investors in relation to compliance issues; and
- representing members of senior management of a French company during interviews with the U.S. Department of Justice, the Manhattan district attorney and other authorities in connection with a multimillion-dollar OFAC investigation.