Emmanuel Marsigny leverages three decades of experience in high-profile criminal defense and enforcement proceedings to provide highly effective trial advocacy for French and international corporations, their top executives, notable political figures, and other clients.

Mr. Marsigny has a well-established track record of success, underpinned by his extensive knowledge of the French enforcement system. He has worked on a wide range of criminal cases, including white collar and organized crime matters, before numerous judicial police departments and French criminal courts, including the Cour de justice de la République.

Throughout his career, Mr. Marsigny has advised on several of the most prominent criminal cases in France, ranging from industrial accidents to highly sensitive international corruption, money laundering and tax fraud cases. He is known for his dynamic presence in court and enforcement proceedings and is particularly adept at handling cross-border cases that require his distinct strategic insight and coordination across continents.

Mr. Marsigny regularly acts in Parquet National Financier (PNF)-led investigations and assists clients facing allegations abroad and extradition orders, including with respect to Interpol ad hoc proceedings.

In recognition of his work, Mr. Marsigny has been repeatedly ranked in Chambers Europe, The Legal 500's Hall of Fame, Décideurs/Leaders League, Best Lawyers and Option Droit & Affaires. He is a member of the International Bar Association.

Mr. Marsigny's experience prior to joining Skadden includes representing:

- SNCF, the French national railway company, in its prosecution following the derailment of a high-speed train in Eckwersheim in 2015 and an accident in Brétigny-sur-Orge in 2013
