

Pamela C. Martin

Skadden

Counsel, Chicago

Tax

T: 312.407.0735
pamela.c.martin@skadden.com

Education

J.D., University of Pennsylvania
Law School, 2014

B.A., Northwestern University, 2008

Bar Admissions

Illinois

Pamela Martin focuses her practice on tax controversy and litigation matters. She represents large multinational corporations and financial institutions at various stages of federal income tax controversy, including audits, administrative appeals and judicial proceedings. Ms. Martin's practice covers a diverse range of tax issues, including international tax and transfer pricing, partnership taxation, REITs and foreign investments in the United States under the Foreign Investment in Real Property Tax Act. She also has advised on partnership transactions, mergers and acquisitions and initial public offerings.