Neepa Mehta represents clients in federal and state courts, government investigations, corporate internal investigations, and mediation. These include actions involving the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, Securities and Exchange Commission, Office of Foreign Assets Control and U.S. Department of Justice, as well as state attorneys general and financial regulators.

Representative matters include:

- representing a multinational corporation in a CFPB investigation of its credit card ancillary products;
- conducting an internal investigation for a global technology company relating to its distribution and resale practices;
- defending a lender in nationwide litigation involving its loan purchasing, servicing and collection practices; and
- representing a bank in a government investigation regarding alleged U.S. sanctions violations.

Ms. Mehta also has represented pro bono clients in connection with petitions for immigration relief and clemency.
