Chancery, 1999-2000

Peter B. Morrison is head of Skadden's Los Angeles office and Litigation Group, as well as co-head of the firm's West Coast litigation practice. He has a broad litigation practice with a particular emphasis on securities, M&A and tax litigation. Mr. Morrison advises corporations on matters involving both federal and state securities laws, duties of corporate directors, SEC and stock exchange inquiries and investigations, contests for corporate control and tax reporting.

In recognition of his work, Mr. Morrison has been:

- named among the Daily Journal's Top 100 attorneys
- selected as a Top 100 Lawyer, as well as a Top Litigator and Trial Lawyer in Los Angeles, by the Los Angeles Business Journal
- recognized as one of Lawdragon's 500 Leading Lawyers in America, 500 Leading Global Litigators and 500 Leading Litigators in America
- twice named Lawyer of the Year for Litigation – Securities, Los Angeles by The Best Lawyers in America (including in its 2026 edition)
- selected for inclusion in Chambers USA every year since 2016 (Band 1), The Best Lawyers in America every year since 2014 and The Legal 500
- honored as the recipient of Teach Democracy's Lloyd M. Smith Award for his dedication to the organization's mission of inspiring civic engagement

Mr. Morrison has advised clients in a wide variety of industries in securities and derivative litigation. He recently has represented, among others:

- Maker Ecosystem Growth Foundation and Maker Ecosystem Growth Holdings, Inc. in securing the dismissal and settlement of a putative class action filed in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California in connection with claims regarding the MakerDAO stablecoin platform. This case was recognized by the Daily Journal as one of the Top Verdicts of 2023 in California
- The We Company and certain of its current and former directors in two putative shareholder class action and derivative lawsuits stemming from the company's withdrawn 2019 initial public offering, a disputed tender offer involving the company's largest investor and certain past conduct by the company's former CEO
- Baidu, Inc. and two of its senior officers in securing the dismissal of a federal securities class action alleging that the company had misrepresented its ability to comply with Chinese internet content regulations in a series of 12 public statements spanning more than a year. This case was recognized by the Daily Journal as one of the Top Verdicts of 2021 in California
- American Apparel, Inc. in connection with securities class actions and derivative lawsuits brought in federal and state court in California
- certain former outside directors of Countrywide Financial Corporation in securities, derivative and ERISA litigations
- Questcor Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (now Mallinckrodt Pharmaceuticals) in federal securities class action and derivative litigation in Los Angeles alleging misrepresentations concerning, among other things, the effectiveness of the company's flagship product and prospects for growth
- Ripple Labs Inc. in a putative class action alleging that it should have registered its virtual currency XRP as a security under federal securities laws
- a syndicate of underwriters in a putative class action brought by purchasers of preferred securities in New Source Energy Partners Inc. alleging that the offering materials for its public offering of preferred securities omitted material information

- Centene Corporation in securing the dismissal with prejudice of a consolidated federal shareholder derivative action that alleged breaches of fiduciary duties and other violations of federal securities laws
 - the former officers of Rentech, Inc. in a federal putative securities class action filed in Los Angeles based on allegedly misleading statements
 - LaSalle Bank, N.A. (now Bank of America) in successfully defeating five related class actions in Orange County Superior Court alleging that the defendants sold fraudulent securities and real estate investments
