Marta Navarro Hernandez advises clients on all aspects of EU, U.K. and international competition law, including merger control, antitrust investigations and compliance issues. She has been involved in several high-profile matters requiring international antitrust merger control approvals both in Europe and around the world.

Ms. Navarro's experience includes advising:

- Berry Global Group, Inc. on its $37 billion acquisition by Amcor plc
- Catalent, Inc. on its $16.5 billion acquisition by Novo Holdings A/S, the holding and investment company for the Novo Nordisk Foundation
- Financière LM on its acquisition of Fresh Food Village
- New Fortress Energy on its $5 billion acquisition of Hygo Energy Transition and Golar LNG Partners
- Prada S.p.A. on its €1.25 billion acquisition of Gianni Versace S.r.l. from Capri Holdings Limited
- Renault Group on the restructuring of its long-standing partnership with Nissan Motor Co. Ltd.
- Sompo Holdings, Inc. on its $3.5 billion acquisition of Aspen Insurance Holdings Limited
- Willis Towers Watson on its:
  - $4 billion sale of Willis Re to Arthur J. Gallagher & Co.
  - proposed (but terminated) $80 billion combination with Aon plc
- WSP Global Inc. on its $1.8 billion acquisition of POWER Engineers, Inc.

Prior to joining Skadden, Ms. Navarro completed numerous traineeships in the Madrid offices of other leading international law firms.
