Alexander Pascall advises clients on EU, U.K., Swedish and international antitrust aspects of mergers, acquisitions and joint ventures. He has been involved in several high-profile and complex merger control cases in transactions requiring international antitrust merger control approvals, both in Europe and around the world.

Mr. Pascall's recent representations include:

- Mars, Incorporated in its US$35.9 billion acquisition of Kellanova
- ANSYS, Inc. in its acquisition by Synopsys, Inc. at an enterprise value of US$35 billion
- International Flavors & Fragrances Inc. in the US$2.85 billion sale of its pharma solutions business unit to Roquette Frères S.A.
- Adobe Inc. with the antitrust aspects of its proposed (but terminated) US$20 billion acquisition of Figma, Inc.
- DuPont in its:
  - US$1.8 billion sale of its aramids business to Arclin
  - US$130 billion merger of equals with The Dow Chemical Company
  - business swap with FMC Corporation, exchanging portions of DuPont's crop protection business for FMC's health and nutrition business
  - US$45.4 billion merger of its Nutrition & Biosciences business with International Flavors and Fragrances Inc.
  - US$11 billion divestiture of a majority of its Mobility & Materials segment to Celanese Corporation
- Konecranes Plc with the global antitrust aspects of its proposed (but terminated) merger with Cargotec Corporation
- Rockwell Collins, Inc. in its US$30 billion acquisition by United Technologies Corporation
- Becton, Dickinson and Company in its US$24 billion acquisition of C.R. Bard, Inc.
- WABCO Holdings Inc. in its US$7 billion acquisition by ZF Friedrichshafen AG
