

Jeremy Patashnik

Skadden

Associate, New York

Supreme Court and Appellate Litigation

T: 212.735.2383
jeremy.patashnik@skadden.com

Education

J.D., Columbia Law School, 2019
(James Kent Scholar; Articles Editor, Columbia Law Review)

B.A., Harvard University, 2012 (magna cum laude; Phi Beta Kappa)

Bar Admissions

New York

Experience

Law Clerk, Hon. Michelle T. Friedland,
U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth
Circuit (2021-22)

Jeremy Patashnik is an appellate litigator whose practice spans a wide range of substantive areas. He works on cases before the U.S. Supreme Court and appellate courts around the country.

Before joining Skadden, Mr. Patashnik clerked for Judge Michelle Friedland of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. Previously, he worked at another international law firm, where he maintained an active pro bono practice that focused on election law. During law school, Mr. Patashnik won the best brief and best oralist awards in Columbia's annual Harlan Fiske Stone Moot Court Competition.