Joe Penko is co-head of Skadden's executive compensation and benefits practice. He advises public and private companies, private equity firms, real estate investment trusts (REITs), executives and boards on executive compensation and employee benefits matters, with a particular emphasis on issues arising in the context of mergers, acquisitions, initial public offerings and other corporate matters.

Mr. Penko regularly counsels clients on the design, implementation and termination of compensation and benefit arrangements, including executive employment and severance agreements; retention, severance and change-in-control plans; cash and equity-based incentive programs; and nonqualified deferred compensation plans.

Mr. Penko also frequently advises clients regarding tax rules relating to deferred compensation, excise tax on excess parachute payments and limits on the deductibility of executive compensation. He also advises on U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission rules governing executive compensation disclosure and corporate governance matters. Mr. Penko has been repeatedly selected for inclusion in Chambers USA and recognized by Lawdragon, including as one of its 500 Leading Corporate Employment Lawyers, 500 Leading Dealmakers in America and 500 Leading Lawyers in America.

Mr. Penko has represented a diverse set of clients in a broad range of industries, including:
