

Elizabeth J. Perkins

Skadden

Associate, Boston

Litigation

T: 617.573.4882
elizabeth.perkins@skadden.com

Education

J.D., University of Connecticut
School of Law, 2018 (High Honors)

B.A., Boston University, 2011

Bar Admissions

Massachusetts

Connecticut

Experience

Law Clerk, Hon. Maria A. Kahn,
Connecticut Supreme Court (2018-19)

Elizabeth Perkins represents financial services, insurance, pharmaceutical and health care companies in a wide range of complex civil litigation and government investigations. Ms. Perkins has defended clients in both civil matters and white collar criminal prosecutions in a variety of sectors. Ms. Perkins also has represented clients in connection with investigations conducted by the Department of Justice and state regulatory agencies.

Ms. Perkins maintains an active pro bono practice, which has included representation of clients seeking asylum and clients facing other immigration issues. In 2020, Ms. Perkins was named one of the Skadden honorees of the Women's Bar Foundation's Nery Arrano Award.