Thomas Perrot leads the firm's French Tax Group. His practice focuses on French and cross-border M&A-related tax matters, including post-acquisition restructurings and integration transactions, as well as tax issues in connection with financing transactions and financial instruments. He also advises clients on a broad range of tax controversy matters.

Mr. Perrot has been named to Expert Guides' Guide to the World's Leading Tax Advisers in France, while Chambers Europe ranks him as one of France's leading tax practitioners, with clients commenting that he is "very knowledgeable, technical and focused," and describing him as "a valued business partner." He also has been repeatedly honored by The Legal 500 EMEA as a Leading Individual in Transactional/Corporate Tax and was previously recognized by the same publication as one of its Next Generation Lawyers. Mr. Perrot also is named in International Tax Review's World Tax guide, Décideurs Juridiques et Financiers and other publications and directories. In addition, he co-authors the recurring "Dividends, Interest, Royalties" section of French tax magazine Fiscalité Internationale.

Prior to joining Skadden in 2015, Mr. Perrot was a tax partner at another leading global law firm.

Mr. Perrot's recent representations, at and prior to joining Skadden, include advising:
