Ryne Posey advises clients across a broad range of industries on the full spectrum of labor and employment matters, including compliance and counseling, litigation and alternative dispute resolution, and transactional matters. Mr. Posey's regular compliance and counseling work includes advising on domestic and global pay equity reviews; conducting workplace investigations; preventing unfair competition and trade secret misappropriation; planning and implementing reductions in force; and developing, implementing and enforcing personnel policies and procedures. These policies and procedures include those regarding discrimination, harassment, retaliation, affirmative action and equal employment opportunities; medical leave and disability accommodation; wages and hours; exempt and non-exempt employee classification; independent contractor classification; hiring/firing; layoff notification; employee privacy; and workplace security.

In addition, Mr. Posey represents clients in litigation and alternative dispute resolution matters concerning wage and hour class, collective and representative actions; unlawful discrimination, harassment and retaliation claims; breach of contract claims; unfair competition claims; trade secret misappropriation claims; and traditional labor law disputes. His experience in this area includes dozens of appearances before courts, administrative agencies, arbitrators and mediators.

Mr. Posey also has extensive experience advising clients on the labor and employment aspects of business transactions, as well as structuring, negotiating and drafting employment agreements, consultant agreements, restrictive covenant agreements, arbitration agreements, severance agreements, collective bargaining agreements, and all labor and employment components of corporate transaction agreements. Mr. Posey was a key member of the deal teams recognized by the Daily Journal with California Lawyer Attorneys of the Year (CLAY) awards for innovative work on behalf of Livongo Health, Inc. in its $18.5 billion acquisition by Teladoc Health, Inc., the largest-ever M&A transaction in the digital health sector (2021); Intel Corporation in its acquisition of Mobileye N.V. (2018); and Broadcom Corporation in its acquisition by Avago Technologies (2016).

In recognition of his work, Mr. Posey has been recognized in Chambers USA and was honored by the Daily Journal as one of its Top Labor and Employment Lawyers in 2025 and 2026. In addition, he has been repeatedly named to the Los Angeles Business Journal's Leaders of Influence: Minority Attorneys and Labor & Employment Attorneys lists. He has also been recognized as a Lawyer on the Fast Track by The Recorder, listed among the nation's leading corporate employment attorneys by Lawdragon, selected to Lawdragon's 500 X – The Next Generation list and named one of LA Times Studios' Legal Visionaries. Mr. Posey is a member of the Skadden Foundation's Advisory Committee, as well as a member of the Governance Board for Covenant House California, Advisory Board for Teach For America Los Angeles and Associates Board for KIPP SoCal Public Schools.
