Michael J. Schwartz is co-head of the firm's U.S. financial sponsor capital markets practice. He represents corporate clients, sponsors, REITs and investment banks in a variety of capital markets transactions, including public and private offerings of equity and debt securities and initial public offerings, as well as project finance, public finance, spin-off and liability management transactions.

Mr. Schwartz has worked on numerous corporate high-yield and investment-grade debt offerings, municipal bond offerings, project financings, private capital transactions, initial public offerings, spin-offs and other public and private equity and equity-hybrid securities offerings, as well as liability management transactions. He also regularly counsels corporate clients, including on the review and preparation of SEC filings, corporate governance matters and interactions with security holders, stock exchanges and regulatory bodies. In recognition of his work, Mr. Schwartz has been named one of Lawdragon's 500 Leading Dealmakers in America and 500 Leading Real Estate Lawyers.
