H. Young Shin, head of Skadden's Korea practice, has worked on a wide range of matters, including mergers and acquisitions, energy-related investments, joint ventures, project finance, real estate development and investments, and corporate finance transactions. He is a founding member of the firm's Seoul office and has been leader of the office since its opening in 2014. He also worked in the firm's New York office for 15 years before relocating to Seoul.

Mr. Shin is recognized by Chambers Global, Chambers Asia-Pacific and The Legal 500 Asia Pacific as one of the leading lawyers in the region, with clients in Chambers Global noting that he is "very commercially positioned and client-oriented, always giving prompt and practical solutions." Mr. Shin was named Dealmaker of the Year in Korea by Asian Legal Business in 2023, in addition to being repeatedly selected as one of ALB's Dealmakers of Asia in Korea from 2021-25 and one of its Korea Super 30 Lawyers. He has also been named M&A Lawyer of the Year by the Legal Times.

Mr. Shin serves as a trustee of The Governor's Academy, his alma mater, which was established in Massachusetts in 1763 and is the oldest boarding school in the region of New England in the United States.

Mr. Shin's experience includes the representation of, among others:

- SK hynix Inc. in its US$9 billion acquisition of the NAND memory and storage business of Intel Corporation
