

James S. Stringfellow

Skadden

Partner, New York

Structured Finance

T: 212.735.3405
F: 917.777.3405
james.stringfellow@skadden.com

Education

J.D., New York University
School of Law, 1987 (Articles Editor,
N.Y.U. Law Review)

A.B., Columbia College, 1983

Bar Admissions

New York

James S. Stringfellow represents issuers, underwriters, placement agents, lenders, agents, investment advisors, collateral managers, investors and other participants in a variety of public and private structured finance transactions.

Mr. Stringfellow's structured finance experience includes credit card, auto loan and other receivable securitizations; collateralized loan obligation transactions and other collateralized debt obligation transactions (including cash flow, market value and synthetic type transactions); financings of investment funds; whole business securitizations; sports league structured financings; commercial loan securitizations; commercial and residential mortgage loan securitizations; resecuritizations and repackagings of various financial assets and derivative products; and asset-backed commercial paper transactions. He also has acted as counsel in connection with traditional corporate finance transactions.

Mr. Stringfellow has been repeatedly selected for inclusion in Chambers Global: The World's Leading Lawyers for Business and Chambers USA: America's Leading Lawyers for Business.

Publications

"In Response to COVID-19, Federal Reserve Establishes 'TALF 2.0,'" Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP, March 24, 2020