

T: 44.20.7519.7276
edward.taylor@skadden.com

Education

Legal Practice Course, BPP University, 2009

G.D.L., BPP Law School, 2008

B.A., University of York, 2007

Bar Admissions

England & Wales

Edward Taylor acts for debtors, creditors, insolvency officeholders and other stakeholders on complex restructurings and insolvency mandates. Mr. Taylor's experience includes advising on restructurings, refinancings and distressed situations across a range of jurisdictions and sectors. Prior to joining Skadden, he worked in the restructuring group of another international law firm.

Mr. Taylor's significant representations, including prior to joining Skadden, include advising:

- Spirit Aerosystems in the divestiture of certain assets and sites involved in the production of Airbus aerostructures to Airbus SE and subsequent merger with The Boeing Company, with the merger valuing Spirit AeroSystems at $4.7 billion
- the Arcadia Group in relation to its Company Voluntary Arrangement proposals
- Prezzo on its debt-for-equity swap and restructuring
- the trustee of the Interserve pension fund on the restructuring of the group
- Monarch Airlines, and subsequently its administrators, on the group's insolvency
- term loan lenders on English law aspects of Paragon Offshore's $2.3 billion Chapter 11 reorganisation
- the government of Trinidad and Tobago on its claims against an insurance and finance conglomerate
- Expro on the restructuring of its loan facilities
- Bluewater, Iona Energy and Noreco on negotiations with bondholders
- Fairfield Energy on its decommissioning liabilities and restructuring