Danny Tricot is co-head of Skadden's European capital markets practice. His capital markets work includes acting for issuers and underwriters on a broad range of equity and debt transactions. Mr. Tricot's general corporate practice includes experience in complex cross-border mergers and acquisitions. He has worked across European jurisdictions, and also in growth markets, with extensive experience in the Middle East, Israel, Africa and the CIS.

Chambers UK has repeatedly listed Mr. Tricot in its rankings, in which clients describe him as "adept at staying on top of the numerous issues raised on complex cross-border deals" and "straight-talking and very commercially minded." He also is listed as a leading individual in Chambers Europe, Chambers Global, The Legal 500 and IFLR1000, and previously was featured in the Financial News' Hall of Fame. Mr. Tricot's work repeatedly has been recognised for its quality and innovation in various international awards, including several commendations in the Financial Times' Innovative Lawyers reports, and various IFLR awards.

On the equity side, Mr. Tricot has advised on initial public offerings, rights offerings and private placings. He has extensive experience in equity listings on the London Stock Exchange, but also advises on listings on various other international exchanges. Mr. Tricot's experience includes advising:
