

Partner, New York

Complex Litigation and Trials; Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG);
Artificial Intelligence

T: 212.735.2472
tansy.woan@skadden.com

Education

J.D., University of Pennsylvania
Law School, 2013

M.A., State University of New York,
Binghamton, 2011

B.A., State University of New York,
Binghamton, 2009

Bar Admissions

New York

New Jersey

Experience

Law Clerk, Hon. A. Richard Caputo,
U.S. District Court for the Middle
District of Pennsylvania (2015-2016)

Recent Publications

"Securities Class Actions Show No
Signs of Slowing in 2024," Law360,
January 12, 2024

"ESG in 2023: A Mid-Year Review,"
*Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom
LLP*, July 18, 2023

"An In-Depth Analysis of Private Federal Securities Litigation," *Practical
Law*, July 17, 2023

"Cos. Must Prepare For More ESG
Scrutiny From All Sides," Law360, July
10, 2023

Tansy Woan focuses her practice on complex commercial, securities and antitrust litigation, as well as advising clients on environmental, social and governance (ESG) issues and the use of emerging technologies.

Ms. Woan represents a broad spectrum of clients in a wide variety of complex corporate, commercial, securities, antitrust and fraudulent transfer disputes in federal and state trial and appellate courts, as well as in arbitration proceedings. She also advises clients in a broad range of regulatory investigations conducted by the DOJ, the SEC and FINRA. Additionally, Ms. Woan frequently counsels clients on a variety of ESG issues, including diversity and inclusion initiatives and ESG-related public disclosures. She also advises clients on the use of artificial intelligence (AI) and related litigation risks.

In recognition of her work, Ms. Woan was named one of Best Lawyers' 2024 Ones To Watch in America and to Lawdragon's inaugural 500 X – The Next Generation list in 2023.

Select representations include:

- Acorda Therapeutics, Inc. in a federal securities putative class action
- Argo Group International Holdings, Ltd. and certain of its current and former officers in a federal securities putative class action
- Aquestive Therapeutics, Inc. and certain of its directors and officers in a federal securities putative class action and a related shareholder derivative action
- AXA Equitable in a series of putative class action lawsuits alleging that the company breached its contractual duties to variable annuity and variable life insurance policyholders by implementing a volatility management strategy in certain portfolios
- Bank of America Corporation in a shareholder derivative action related to its acquisition of Countrywide Financial Group
- FMR, LLC and Fidelity Brokerage Services, LLC in a putative class action asserting securities claims related to high-frequency trading
- JPMorgan Chase in various federal antitrust class actions alleging that foreign currency dealers conspired to manipulate benchmark currency exchange rates
- The NewYork-Presbyterian Hospital in a putative class action alleging fraud, negligence, unjust enrichment and breach of contract claims related to the withholding of FICA taxes
- Oscar Health, Inc. and certain of its current and former directors and officers in a federal securities putative class action
- Paradigm Operations LP in a federal securities putative class action in connection with its investment in a leading decentralized crypto exchange
- PG&E Corporation and certain of its directors in multiple shareholder derivative actions arising out of the September 2010 rupture of a natural gas transmission pipeline
- PPL Corporation and certain of its current and former directors in an alleged fraudulent transfer dispute arising out of a spin-off of its coal-fired business

Tansy Woan

Continued

-
- directors and officers of Republic Airways, Inc. in a federal securities putative class action brought by distressed debt funds following the airline's Chapter 11 restructuring
 - UBS Securities LLC in a securities dispute arising out of its purchase of 22 residential mortgage-backed securities by two of NCUA's member credit unions
 - an AI health care technology company in a trade secret dispute
 - an ESG-focused community bank in connection with an FDIC examination
 - a multinational retail corporation in connection with its business arrangement with an automation company and the use of its automated products

Ms. Woan maintains an active pro bono practice and has handled a variety of matters in this capacity, including a recent federal jury trial where she served as lead trial counsel in a civil rights matter. She also represents survivors of domestic violence in obtaining orders of protection and assisting with related custody disputes. In 2016, she was honored by Sanctuary for Families for her successful representation of a domestic violence survivor in a trial that resulted in an order granting all of the relief requested.

She also maintains an active amicus practice, including:

- on behalf of criminal law scholars in New York Rifle & Pistol Ass'n v. Cortlett (U.S. Supreme Court 2021)
- on behalf of law professors in Nasrallah v. Barr (U.S. Supreme Court 2020) (removal proceedings)
- on behalf of members of Congress in three district courts (2018-19) and the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit (2020) (administration of the Teen Pregnancy Prevention Program)
- on behalf of the Harvard Immigration and Refugee Clinical Program in Darweesh v. Trump (E.D.N.Y. 2017) (executive action on immigration restrictions)
- on behalf of a coalition of businesses in Texas v. United States (Fifth Circuit 2015) (executive action on undocumented immigrants)

Ms. Woan is actively involved in Skadden's recruiting and diversity programs, serving as a member of the firm's Summer Associate Committee, Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Committee, Asian Pacific Islander Affinity Network and Women's Affinity Network. She also is a frequent speaker and author on diversity and inclusion issues.