Tatsuro Yamamura represents large U.S. and international financial institutions and other multinational companies on a broad range of tax matters, including tax planning and transactional matters.

Mr. Yamamura advises on tax issues arising in cross-border and domestic contexts, including in internal integration and restructuring transactions. He frequently counsels clients on a variety of international tax issues, including transfer pricing and advance pricing agreements, subpart F income, the base erosion and anti-abuse tax, and foreign tax credit planning. Mr. Yamamura also advises clients in connection with various corporate transactions, including spin-offs and financing transactions.
